

Ways to Save: Extra Help for Prescription Drug Costs

Announcer: You might be on a limited income. Fortunately, there are a number of ways you may be able to get help with your drug costs.

Announcer: Medicare provides “Extra Help” to pay prescription drug costs for people who have limited income and resources.

Announcer: The first thing you’ll want to do is to contact Social Security to see if you qualify for Extra Help.

Announcer: You can apply at your state Medical Assistance or Medicaid office.
